Hey all. We hope you all had a great thanksgiving filled with family, friends, and amazing food. We had fantastic half days with a lot of activities and games. Our December is going to be busy with more crafts and getting ready for the holidays. Our snow prediction chart is still going on. The children are anxiously waiting to see when the first snowflake will fall. Also remember with the weather changing all the time, please dress your children accordingly, we try to get outside as much as we can.

Important Dates:

December 17th-1/2 day
December 20th-23rd- Holiday Care
December 24th & 27th- FCCC Closed
December 28th-30th- Holiday Care

Fun Fact:

National Cookie Day is December 4th. Other snacks celebrated this month include pie, cotton candy, chocolate brownies (mmm!), cocoa, and cupcakes.
